This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE

The Seventh Edition of Who's Who in New York is herewith submitted with apologies to our subscribers for the delay in bringing it out, caused by the many changing activities of our citizens in these busy war times.

The purpose and principle of this publication is well known to our regular patrons, but to others we wish to emphasize the fact that our chief effort is to include all of the truly interesting and important people of New York. This effort is made on a strictly impartial basis, without regard to whether an individual may or may not become a subscriber.

In a few cases the name of some prominent person may be found missing. This is because we failed to receive the necessary data. We prefer to omit mention of any individual rather than to rely on second-hand information. While this action is regrettable it is most necessary in order to maintain the high standard of authenticity which makes Who's Who in New York the valuable and interesting work that it is.

After completing sch. course, became interested in real estate and at the age of 21 established himself in real estate and ins. business. In May, 1908, sold over 2,000 lots in six of most successful lot sales ever held in N. Y. City. Within past year conducted three record absolute auction sales of unimproved property in N. Y. City; The Van Cortland Estate, 719 lots, sold for $1,447,385; Forster-Schmidt Estates, 462 lots, for $599,275; Morris Park Estates (conducted by order of State of N. Y. In three years, ending Dec. 31, 1909, sold at auction more than $100,000,000 worth of real estate in and around Greater N. Y. In year ending June

Among recent successful sales, most notable was that of Yerkes mansion, which brought $1,239,000 on April 20, 1910. Besides selling real estate at auction, he has been interested in a great many large deals negotiated at private sale. Through him the General Motors Co. and the Chevrolet Motor Co. acquired his large properties at Tarrytown, formerly occupied by the Maxwell Motor Co. Has sold many large manufacturing plants in different parts of the country, only recently having sold two enormous plants in Bridgeport, Conn., and two large mills in Cedartown, Ga. The Ford Motor Co. purchased, through Mr. Day, a large tract of land on the Newark Meadows at the head of Newark Bay. This new site is to be used as the Eastern plant for assembling of the Ford Tractors for export trade. He also recently sold to the Ford Motor Co. one-half block fronting on Broadway and 54th St., to be used for a N. Y. salesroom.
